2015

3/1 8" snow. 5 degrees I was sure that no one would be up for a bird walk. But three brave souls. Greg Lambeth, Rob Kanter, and Pfred Benham somehow made it and saw 24 species as listed above.

- 3/8 Trails were very treacherous with lots of frozen snow. Highlight was a flock of Pine Siskins in the sweet gums of the cemetery
- 3/15 Silver Maples are beginning to show red flower buds. Highlights were the Winter Wrens and Rusty Blackbirds.

There is an official census of these blackbirds going on this spring as there is concern about declining numbers.

- 3/22 Thanks to Phred Benham for leading this and next week's hike as Greg Lambeth and I will be inTexas. Highlights were an American Woodcock and flyover Ring-billed Gulls
- the pair of Barred Owls were also seen.
- 3/29 Clear but chilly, -30 at start of walk. The pair of Cooper's Hawks were courting, the pair of Barred Owls were also 4/5 Spring is coming. The Spicebush are beginning to bloom, wild onions are up, and the honeysuckle unfortunately is leafing out.
 Greg found us a Small Mouthed Salamander,
